~~FINANCIAL AID~~

~~☐ General FinAid Information (FAQ)~~

~~Please find some general information below regarding financial aid.~~

~~Can I take out a loan to help pay for my schooling?~~
~~Stevens offers graduate students the option to borrow from a variety of loan programs that offer flexible repayment, low interest rates and funding sufficient to cover tuition, fees and normal living expenses. Federal Direct Student Loans are available to matriculated students taking at least six credits per semester who are U.S. Citizens or Permanent Resident Aliens. In order to find out if you qualify, you must submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).~~

How do I fill out the FAFSA?

This universrebial financial aid application can be completed on hard copy (available from the Student Service Center or many public libraries) or online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Information you provide on this form is forwarded to Stevens (use school code number 002639 to identify Stevens as the school to which your information is sent), and upon receipt, a staff member will determine your eligibility and notify you in writing.

What should I do if I do not qualify for a Federal Student Loan?

For students who do not meet the criteria for Federal Student Loan programs, such as international students, loans from private sources can be borrowed to meet all or most of your annual costs. These private loans, also known as alternative loans, are not based on financial need, but in most cases a credit check is completed by the lender in order to determine eligibility. For more information on private/alternative loans, click here.

How can I pay my tuition from overseas?

International students who do not want to use a credit card can pay via wire transfer. We recommend using PeerTransfer.

What other payment options do I have?

For information about deferred payment plans, employer tuition reimbursement plans, and tuition payment plans, visit the Graduate Payment Options page of the Student Service Center's website.
For more information about tuition costs and payment options, please refer to the Stevens Financial Aid Website.

Can I get financial aid from Stevens? (International)

DO NOT USE
Thank you for your e-mail!

Stevens realizes that students seeking advanced degrees are financially independent and must balance the costs of their studies with other obligations. To assist graduate students, Stevens has several financing options from a variety of sources.

Financial Aid may be available in the form of Assistantships and Fellowships. The Provost's Master's Fellowships are offered to exceptional students entering Stevens to pursue a master's degree on a full-time basis. Fellowships are awarded after receiving admission – no additional application is needed. Assistantships are awarded by the Academic Department on a merit and availability basis and are not typically awarded to first year graduate/master's students as these positions are reserved for doctoral students. More financial aid information about these opportunities can be found here.

Many Stevens graduate students are sponsored by their employers; we encourage you to check at your place of employment about tuition benefits. We also recommend that you investigate other funding sources in your home country prior to beginning your studies at Stevens. External websites that you may find useful include:

- Institute of International Education
- EduPass
- International Education Financial Aid (IEFA)

CWL - Financial Aid may be available in the form of assistantships and fellowships. Details regarding these programs can be found here: http://www.stevens.edu/admissions/tuition-financial-aid/graduate-funding-aid

Is there alternative financing? (Alternative Options)

Stevens offers a wide range of financial aid programs from institutional, federal, state, and private sources; however students and families may find that these programs do not cover all of their educational costs. With this in mind, Stevens participates in a variety of financing options and payment plans. Families who need assistance in addition to the aid already offered, or even those who may not qualify for any traditional aid, still have resources available to them to make these expenses more manageable.

We provide a number of lender options on this page so that students and their families can have a good starting point when beginning the process of comparing loans*. There are many student loan providers out there and it is advisable to look at lenders' criteria, rates and repayment options carefully before making a decision.

Since these programs are subject to change, be sure to check with each provider for the most current information.

Admitted – More Money Request

Added on 03/31/2025

For students who are requesting an increase in funding - keep in mind to first review their record to ensure that their request has not already been reviewed as well as if they have applied with a GRE score, the template will need to be adjusted. You should all cc the Admissions Advisor in your reply.

Congratulations once again on your admission.

The Provost Master's Scholarships are merit based and always offer partial funding. ~~Those scholarships are only re-reviewed if the student provides additional documentation that was not previously part of the application, for example, a GRE score. Keep in mind that the average quantitative GRE score at Stevens at the master's level is 162 so we will only offer additional funding for quantitative scores above 160 with a combination of a verbal score above 152. As you have not provided a GRE score for the application review and if you possess one now, please submit it to our office no later than May 15*th* and we will be happy to review the funding again. Applications are not re-reviewed based on additional work experience.~~

Alternatively, Stevens offers on-campus job opportunities to incoming graduate students post arrival to the United States. While not guaranteed and those positions do require an interview with the hiring manager, many of our graduate students are employed on campus every semester. International students are allowed to work on campus for up to 20 hours/week and the pay is roughly around $15.00 USD per hour. Students who can obtain jobs on campus for the full 20 hours/week usually make around $1, 200.00 USD per month which will go a long way towards covering your living expenses.

Many of our graduate students seek loans to meet the cost of attending Stevens. A historical lender list of lenders where prior students have secured loans can be found here.

RA and TA positions are usually kept for Ph.D. students. While some master's students can secure TA positions on campus, those positions are dependent on the department/school and are rare to secure.

I recommend you also familiarize yourself with the information provided on the Stevens website on alternative funding options for Graduate students. This information can be found here.

Our office looks forward to welcoming you in the fall!

~~☐ Admitted Masters - No Funding Awarded~~

~~Congratulations on your acceptance into Stevens! We pride ourselves on selecting excellent candidates and we are excited to extend the opportunity for you to join our community.~~

~~Scholarship opportunities are awarded based on merit and usually awarded to the top in-coming class. While all applications have already been reviewed for scholarships at the time the admissions decision was made, there might still be additional opportunities at a later time.~~

~~On-campus work opportunities are available for graduate students. You can apply for a position upon arrival to the United States. While they do offer enough funds to assist with your living expenses, they cannot be used as proof of income for I-20 purposes. Please visit our Student Employment webpage for more detailed information.~~

~~Research and teaching assistantships may be available through the department during the second or third semester of enrollment. However, please keep in mind those are awarded through the academic department.~~

~~We look forward to having you join us. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask.~~

~~☐ Admitted Masters - More Funding Requested~~

~~Congratulations on your acceptance into Stevens and receiving a Provost scholarship! That is truly an extraordinary accomplishment.~~

~~Provost's scholarships are granted to a select few from a very competitive pool. Although the scholarships are finalized, we are happy to share a couple of financing alternatives available to our students.~~

~~Research and teaching assistantships may be available through the department during the second or third semester of enrollment. However, please keep in mind those are awarded through the academic department.~~

~~Vast amount of employment options across different departments are available on campus. Students can apply for positions upon arrival to the United States. Please check the following link to view the steps and availability:~~ ~~https://www.stevens.edu/page-right-nav/student-employment~~

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

☐ General Information

Thank you for your e-mail!

To assist in maintaining your health and the health of others on campus, the State of New Jersey requires each student attending state-accredited institutions of higher education to provide his/her complete Immunization Record. Additionally, every full-time graduate student must also have a completed Health Record in the Student Health Center.

For more information on new student requirements, please visit the Health and Immunization website.

Please fill out this Health and Immunization Record so that you can satisfy New Jersey and Stevens requirements. Please note that the form(s) must be completed in English, signed, dated, and stamped by a healthcare provider/MD. Copies of all immunization documents must be officially translated into English before they are presented, as well.

If you have any questions concerning the above information, please contact the Student Health Center at (201) 216-5678.

☐ Waiving Student Health Insurance

IMPORTANT DATES

☐ Academic Calendar

Thank you for your e-mail!

Stevens Institute of Technology follows a traditional Academic Semester system, with Fall and Spring semesters spanning 15 weeks each, leading to a total of 30 weeks of instruction for the Academic Year. The full academic calendar can be found here.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

☐ When are classes usually held?

Thank you for your e-mail.

Most of our classes take place in the evenings, as the majority of our students are part-time working professionals. We also offer many online classes for those who cannot come to campus.

You can browse classes and schedules here.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE?

All graduate students are expected to maintain continuity of enrollment, except for summer sessions. If students are unable to meet this requirement, the student must apply for a leave of absence by submitting a Request for Leave of Absence on Workday. A leave of absence is granted for a limited time, usually 6 months or one year. Upon student request, the period may be extended at the discretion of Graduate Academics & Student Success. Time spent in the Armed Forces of the United States while on leave of absence is not included in the six-year limit to complete the degree.

Leave of Absence does not waive a review of an action on a student's academic performance. Students who do not maintain continuity of enrollment and who do not obtain a leave of absence may be dropped from the program. Re-enrollment requires permission from Graduate Academics & Student Success and the Program Director/Department Chair.

~~All Stevens matriculated students are expected to maintain continuity of enrollment, except for summer sessions. If this cannot be done, the student must request a leave of absence by completing a Leave of Absence/Withdrawal form and submitting it for approval to the Dean of Graduate Academics. Once approved, the Dean will forward the information to the Office of the Registrar and to the Office of the Student and Scholar Services for international students.~~

~~A leave of absence may impact the visa status of an international student and international students should review carefully the policies and procedures for maintenance of status before requesting a leave of absence. A leave of absence is granted for a limited period of time, usually one year. The time period may be extended at the discretion of the Dean of Graduate Academics if there are extenuating circumstances. Most graduate students have a six-year limitation to complete their degree studies.~~

~~Please contact Graduate Admissions or Registrar if you have any further questions about taking a leave of absence.~~

ocpe@stevens.edu

~~Thank you for your e-mail!~~

~~Domestic students who are interested in taking courses without enrolling in a degree or certificate program may submit a non-matriculating application form, which will allow them to take up to three classes. As long as the classes are applicable to the degree or certificate that they eventually want to pursue, they can transfer the credits once admitted to the desired program.~~

~~Please note that Stevens does not guarantee admission to a degree or certificate program after taking non-matriculating classes. This is usually an option for students who just want to participate in a class or two, want to try out graduate~~

~~study before they actually enroll, or are trying to enroll at the last minute. Completed forms are then sent to Graduate Admissions at Graduate@stevens.edu.~~
